Description: Sudden Death of Mrs. Robert Beecham

On Saturday night last the estimable wife of Robert Beecham, near this village, died suddenly after an illness of less than two hours. She was apparently in her usual health up to ten o'clock P.M., at which hour she retired. Soon afterward she complained of severe pains, and arose from her bed; her sufferings increased, and soon, Mr. B. becoming alarmed, sent a messenger for a physician, but before his arrival she had passed from earth. Fanny Jane Cromwell was born Nov. 2, 1814, in St. Johns, New Brunswick. Sept. 9, 1830, she was married to Robert Beecham, and in the fall of 1843 came with her family to their present home near this village, where they have resided ever since. She was the mother of a numerous family of children, six of whom are now living to deplore her loss; Deborah, wife of I.D. Hayden, of this village; Amelia, wife of C.F. Bayba, of Neligh, Neb.; Maria, wife of Geo. Watkinson, of Fremont, Neb., late of this village; Ella, now Mrs. Henry DeLaMatyr, of Neb.; Robert, of Neb., and Henry, of Minnesota. Mrs. Beecham was for many years a highly esteemed member of the Baptist Church, and was held in high regard as a wife, mother, neighbor and friend. Mr. Beecham has the sympathy of the entire community in his great affliction.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist Church, on Wednesday, June 19, and were attended by a very large concourse of friends and family.
